

Hello fellow Oasis fans.....
Lasagne! is just about two and a half years old! If you've just moved into Lasagneland, welcome. If you're reading this from a HMV shelf, go and buy it now! No-one with any interest in Oasis should be without Issue 8 of Lasagne! We are, and always will be the world's first and original Oasis fanzine.

This is gonna be a big year for Oasis. What with the 'difficult' third album 'Be Here Now' (working title), looking set for a May release and a single before that. Something worth living for? Well, close sources say it's coming along 'fantastically' (see Brian Cannon interview later). I can only speak for myself but I'm buzzin'! Even if it's just at the fact that they're still together. Don't deny you weren't worried for a few days back last September!

So Liam's shaved his hair off then. Front page news on The Mirror no less! So he went to some little barber shop in Cheshire, got a £4.50 cut and gave a £5.50 tip and now he's 'Wonderbald', says The Sun (not me!) They've made the guy that did it, 16yr old Scott Minshall, a 'star barber'. Apparently he's wondering which celebrities are now gonna come running for one of his famous 'No.3's'. Dream on Scott! Give your bed-ridden Granny some clippers and she'll show you how easy it's done. Blindfolded!

Nevertheless, it looks cool. But it is Liam Gallagher we're talking about. I suppose this now means that a 'No.3 cut' will become a Liam-like cut. So, in effect, half the population of Britain will now be Liam-a-likes. So lots more people can form No-Way-Sis's, get a record deal, and appear on Top Of The Pops! Anyway, what am I on about? Let's get on with it, or roll with it, some might say! (Sorry.)

Thanks for all the kind letters, and contributions. If you've sent one in and it's not in this issue it'll probably be in the next.

Contributions are welcome now for Issue 9. Remember this is a fanzine & it's written by fans for fans, so your opinions count. Oh, and did I mention that Oasis read it too!

With all contributions, orders, letters, queries write to :

It's getting better, man!
 Just take a look at the contents. (man)!

You lookin' at my hair?
